Scenic Notes:

Ride through an area of ridge and valley country dotted with picturesque towns, challenging climbs, ridgetop runs and fast downhill. The ride is highlighted by a trip through Purgatory Chasm -- with its boulder strewn gorge and cliffs. Start in the Victorian town of Uxbridge and ascend to the mill village of Whitinsville, then into the chasm climb to Sutton. A smooth run leads to Singletary and Stockwell Ponds to the village of Manchaug. The 54 mile ride runs southward along routes 96 & 98 to Chepachet.
