

RABA WINDMILL - WEEMS RIDE

The route starts at the Steamboat Era Museum in Irvington and then heads out to Windmill Point beach for a great view of the mouth of the Rappahannock River. The route then travels around Fleets Bay into downtown Kilmarnock. lunch on the patio at Savannah Joes

After lunch, the shorter route returns to Irvington

The longer route travels down to the Corrotoman River, then into the historic village of Weems where Carters Creek joins the Rappahannock River . There are two view stops – one on the Carters Creek side of Weems and another on the Corrotoman River side. From Weems, the route heads back to Irvington.
